MONDAY, OCTOBER 7 | 11 AM - 1 PM

SEVERN LIBRARY - ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
2624 ANNAPOLIS RD, SEVERN, MD 21144

Join us for the Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture (MCAAHC) October 2024 Public Meeting hosted by Commissioner Elinor Thompson and the Severn Improvement Association. At the meeting you'll learn about upcoming initiatives, and hear from engaging speakers in the heritage and preservation community.

Guest Speaker: Auriel Mayberry-Gaballa, Severn Improvement Association

About the Severn Improvement Association

The Severn Improvement Association (SIA) has served Severn's Queenstown Community since 1959. SIA's presentation will highlight key people, places, and events from the historic African American community of Queenstown in Severn. The community's roots include the Queen and Gaither families enslaved at White Marsh plantation in Bowie, MD.
